6. Planning Issues

Notification of Decision 26/01168/PLF – SH Energy Ltd, Two Acres, Bridlington Road, Skipsea, YO25 8TL

Change of use of land to be used for holiday accommodation – siting of 17 camping pods, service block and communal recreation room and storage

It was noted that this application has been approved.

7. Tour of Britain

A group of residents in Lissett have kindly agreed to co-ordinate the decorating of Lissett in readiness for the Tour of Britain cycle race passing through. Bunting would also be available for Ulrome to decorate the route. Funding through the Hull and East Riding Combined Mayor Authority has been applied for to support with the costs of any supplies. Thanks were expressed to the residents in Lissett for their support with this.

8. East Riding Local Plan Consultation

It was noted that ERYC are carrying out a scoping consultation in relation to the production of the local plan.

9. Traffic Issues

Data has been received regarding the speed of vehicles in Ulrome and Lissett as requested at the previous meeting. The data shows Main Street, Ulrome - average speed 20.3mph & 85th percentile 26.5mph and Main Street, Lissett - average speed 17mph & 85th percentile 24.5mph. Whilst the data shows compliance with the speed limit it is recognised that there will always be people who do not drive to the limits and anyone witnessing this is advised to report it to the police. There are initiatives which could be explored such as community speed watch (Community Speed Watch | OPCC) however this would require a minimum of 6 volunteers being willing to be trained and operate the scheme.

10. Bins/Street Signs

ERYC have advised that it is not possible to have another bin sited on North Road, Ulrome.

11. Correspondence received
